

Sardar Patel University of Police, Security and Criminal Justice, Jodhpur, Rajasthan

NATIONAL SUMMIT ON PRIVATE SECURITY MANAGEMENT

Organized by
Department of Criminology and Police Studies
18th-19th November 2017

In the ever-changing world where terrorism and crime have become a serious threat to our society, private security has become a very important component and responsible stakeholder to combat these problems. The attack on Taj Hotels in Mumbai was only one such example that showed the importance of private security management in protecting citizens as there cannot be complete reliance on the law enforcement agencies. This workshop will be a starting point to share the best practices of security management amongst the stakeholders including both governmental organizations like CISF and non-governmental organizations including security companies and hotel industries.

Participants:

- Security managers/ assistant security managers/security officers of private security companies, hotels and banks from various parts of India.
- Students of MA/M.Sc. in Criminology and Police Studies
- Alumni of SPUP Jodhpur

Resource persons:

Security experts from CISF, Reliance, Taj, SIS, G4S and other organizations. Some of the speakers include Mr. Avtar Ghumman, head of Reliance Industries Limited's Global Security Operations Centre (GSOC), Mr. M.L. Kumawat, Former DG BSF(IPS, retd.), Mr. Virendra Champawat, Area Security Manager- Rajasthan hotels, Indian Hotels Company Ltd., etc.

Objectives of the summit:

- 1) To deliberate and come up with suggestions to improve the private security management mechanisms in India.
- 2) To facilitate the dissemination of knowledge about security management from law enforcement agencies like CISF to private security organizations
- 3) To create a platform for various organizations to share the best practices of security management among themselves.
- 4) To create a platform to bring together academicians and practitioners for discussion about various issues in private security management
