

3 day State Level workshop on "Gender Budgeting in Policing" at Jaipur from 1.3.2016 to 3.2.2016.

The training programme on "Gender Budgeting in Policing" in Jodhpur was a landmark event on university's accounts. The workshop, for the first time, brought together Police Personnel, Account Officers, Academicians and NGO's upon several issues influencing Gender Budgeting . The Workshop developed a consensus on the need to allocate funds so as to improve the position of women, hence contributing to gender equality.

Various dimensions related to Gender Budgeting were explored through multiple views of resource persons and participants. Power point presentations and various activities were carried out to explain gender budgeting in detail. Presentations, including case studies, illustrated the need for gender budgeting which can be right tool for gender equality and women's empowerment and strengthening country ownership over development. . Thus, the Conference became successful because of the contribution of many including resource persons and police personnel.